

Iowa Cultural Corridor Alliance

The Iowa Cultural Corridor Alliance (ICCA) is an alliance of 150+ arts and cultural organizations in East Central Iowa.

Iowa's Cultural Corridor is home to one of the richest collections of unique, interesting, and fun organizations who together stage thousands of events every year.

Looking for something fun to do today, tonight, or this weekend? What to show friends from out of town a good time?

Visit www.culturalcorridor.org.

We guarantee you'll find something fun to do, because...

Culture.
It's closer than you think.

Get Involved

- Visit us: The ICCA website, www.culturalcorridor.org, contains over 3,000 upcoming arts and culture events that our partner organizations are planning for the coming weeks, months, and years.
- Try something new: Each of our partner organizations has events you can attend, as well as volunteer and internship opportunities.
- Become a partner: ICCA partners receive benefits such as posting events on the Cultural Corridor website, professional development sessions, and arts advocacy assistance.
